

Distribution Network List

Smart Listings reaches some publishers directly, and some via agreements with underlying database providers such as InfoGroup, Acxiom, Factual, and Compass. In total, Smart Listings distribution amounts to hundreds if not thousands of sites and devices reached directly or indirectly. The partial list below represents publishers Smart Listings reaches via direct and indirect feeds, as well as sites to which manual submission is made via publicly available gateways. Nothing herein should be construed to imply a relationship between Smart Listings and the site listed. This list is subject to frequent updates.
