

To Whom It May Concern;

May 31, 2006

Since signing on with YellowPageCity.com to have my new business listed on their website I have noticed a significant increase in traffic on my own website as well as in my store. I have also been very pleased with the professionalism of all representatives that I have dealt with from initially signing up to the creation of my ad (which I might add is of exceptional quality).

I am very happy with the service and anticipate a long relationship with YellowPageCity.com.

Sincerely,

Corrina Pauldine
Owner
